CLUB NEWS

At the club forum, Colin reported on his work as Chair of the District Vocational Services Committee. Frances was thanked for the very successful Healesville trip, Vicki for raising $1000 from the Blue Illusion Night, & Marsha for raising over $500 for Australian Rotary Health. At the club's Board meeting Graham reported that there is $11,694 in the club's bank account. Payments have been made to the Mental Health First Aid Course ($440), RC of Healesville Kenya goat project as a way of thanking Ray Church ($275) & Olympic Village ($838). Donations approved are $200 to Open House & $200 to the RC of Bright for trailer for East Timor. Projects to be furthered in the next Rotary year include support for the Livingston Centre, Banyule Men's Shed, Salvation Army & the Western Desert Health project. Two prospective members will be invited to club meetings in June. Vicki is preparing an 'administrative continuity' document to aid rotation of club officers from year to year. The next Board meeting on Tuesday 14 June will include both the present Board & the incoming Board members.

CLUB CHANGEOVERS

The Rotary Club of Moreland invite us to attend their changeover dinner on Wednesday 15 June, 7 for 7.30pm, at Federazione Lucana, 5 Cozens St Brunswick, $50 pp. Contact Nino Galgano on 9383 3611 or ngalgano@hotmail.com
