OUR LAST MEETING

Attendance: 13/15 = 87%

Apologies: Ross Pinney, Beverley Sheppard

Visitor: Maree McCabe

Speakers: Rob Patton and Don Page Wood (the new paid co-ordinator) spoke about their plans for the West Heidelberg Men's Shed, now that the new shed is up and running. Four groups of men use the shed – retired men, men with disabilities, Somali men and aboriginal men. All have different ways of working & different ideas for the future. Aboriginal men are currently working in the stage area of the church, painting a number of items for the City of Banyule. August 25 will be the official launch of the new shed and our club hopes to present a plaque recording our on-going support.

CLUB NEWS

The Blue Illusion night last Thursday was a great success, raising $600 for the club. Vicki did a wonderful job, not only rounding up twenty women to attend the event but also participating herself in the clothing parade. As Ronnie said, 'Vicki is precious'. Champagne, strawberries, chocolates and two 'lucky door prizes' (won by Emily Brown and Cathy Harris) made for a very enjoyable and fun night. Hopefully it can be an annual event on our club's calendar.

AUSTRALIAN CHILDREN'S MUSIC FOUNDATION

Each year the District Governor's wife has a special project. This year Dorothy Anderson's fund-raising project will be the Australian Children's Music Foundation. Our club will present her with a cheque for this organisation.
